

Lindsay aids job seekers

BUSINESS INSIDE

Lindsay's the right person for the job...

A COMPANY has been set up to recruit clerical, sales, personnel workers and managers.

Halo Personnel is being run by Lindsay Dalton, 25, at Barnsley Business and Innovation Centre, Wilthorpe.

She said: "Companies are still wanting staff. I have been advised that this is the perfect time to start a recruitment business."

Lindsay, who lives in Barnsley town centre, has had a spell as consultant with the co-founder Ian Collins who runs Direct Garden Supplies which makes horticultural products.

She spent about three years with Talent Recruitment, formerly on Summer Lane, Barnsley, and had a short spell working for Benchmark Recruitment.

Halo Personnel started trading earlier this autumn.

Lindsay plans tandem jump

A BUSINESSWOMAN is to do a 15,000-sq ft tandem parachute jump on Sunday for the armed forces charity Help for Heroes.

Lindsay Dalton, 25, of Dodworth Road, Barnsley, hopes to raise between £2,000 and £3,000 for the charity which helps injured service personnel and their families.

She is doing the jump in memory of a friend, Royal Marine David Marsh, 22, from Thurgoland, who died in a roadside bomb blast in Iraq about two years ago.

Lindsay will do the jump from Hibaldshow Airfield, Lincolnshire.
